Riskallah Riyad

Southbury, CT

Riskallah Riyad is an instructor and performer of unparalleled originality. Her combinations and choreographies are imaginative and challenging. Her love of dance and unlimited vitality show in both the classroom (where she excels at inspiring students to achieve new heights), and in each and every performance.

Riskallah will be presenting Project Runway, tips and techniques for taking the infinitely variable fabric of the dance, molding it to a design, and creating a uniquely fashionable result to dazzle one and all on the dance floor!

Dalia Carella

New York City

Dalia Carella is a highly-acclaimed Middle Eastern dancer and global fusion artist. She has delved deeply in the study of ancient Middle Eastern dance for over 30 years, including dances of Egypt, Morocco, Tunisia, Turkey, Lebanon, and Algeria. Her works are both traditional and contemporary, imbuing her work with a spiritual essence behind each and every movement. Dalia is the artistic director of the Dalia Carella Dance Collective, which has been performing domestically for the past nine years.

Dalia will be presenting Belly Dance Contemporary, featuring fresh perspectives on traditional belly dance techniques and combinations. Let Dalia inspire you to new creative heights!

Performing slots for the dance party are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Ten openings are served for returning performers, and six are reserved for new participants. Open dance slots will be filled from the waiting list after the preregistration cutoff. To be fair to everyone, performers may only dance once (group or solo). You MUST register for the seminar to qualify for a place in the program.

Routines are limited to seven minutes (but remember, less is sometimes more). Music must be on CD-R (not CD-RW). MP3 format is NOT supported.
